Gage Story

A Perfect 10 by Tierra Belser

No one can take this away from me.
No matter how hard you try, you will never succeed.
It's in my heart, my soul;
It's within me from my head to my toes.
As the days wind down, I kind of feel
As if it's all starting to dwindle away.
I've been doing this for almost 2,340 days and 14,040 hours,
So I know how everyone is and how everything works.
I know how to make Brittany laugh;
I know what Shannah's favorite color is
And how to make Garret smile.
Ten years from now will it matter who won best dressed or best smile?
What will matter are the memories that are bound to last forever:
Betty Smith in fourth grade who made us write all the time,
And Donna Keith who continuously lost her mind,
And Sally Brock who actually taught us a lot.
My 3.0 GPA will not matter to anyone, not even me
Who will be a CEO of a major company.
I respect Elise's cutest outfit, Premo's crazy hair,
Jesse's extra largeness and Markevis's humor.
I love how Sharlene has been there for me
And how she will do the same for you.
Also all those times I had car trouble
And Gage and Steven magically appeared.
2010 IS SOMETHING and will continue
Even after Josh as gained his degree as a Seminole,
After Terenicia has done the next Presidents hair,
And after Micky Marshall has given out his last piece of gum.
Just like the shirts say, we are perfect,
The first class to go all four years at the new school
And the first class to get disqualified at homecoming four years in a row.
We are untouchable and you can't stop us.
No matter how hard you try, it's impossible.

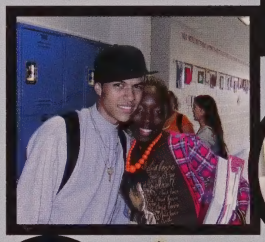
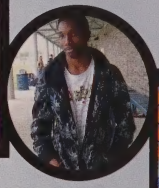
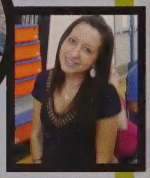
"You study to remember. If you remember too much you forget. If you forget you don't know what you studied. If you forgot what you studied you fail your test. SO WHY STUDY?"







"Laugh as much as you breathe and love as long as you live."

High School Stories

"I remember the time we had the first ever Seniors vs. Underclassmen powderpuff game. The Senior boys dressed up as cheerleaders and cheered the whole time. The game was hilarious and everyone loved it. I'll never forget the game or the Class of 2010. Good luck in the future ya'll."
-Dallas Curry, 11

"Some of my favorite high school memories were on the last two days of school (08-09). I remember me and a bunch of others got out of class and went to the gym. There were about 70 people in the gym and a lot of them were playing basketball. Those were the good old days."
-Khiry Peterson, 10

"At softball I was running and I had some long pants on and I tripped and my pants fell down!"
-Lisa Granger, 10

"My favorite high school memory so far is the 2009 homecoming parade. First, I marched with my fellow cadets in JROTC. Then, we watched all the people represent Vernon proudly!"
-David Fortune, 9

"My favorite high school memory has to be preforming Saturday the 14th. Standing over everyone while rapping into a plunger was such a rush. To entertain the students of VHS and our community has been my dream and my honor, and I wouldn't trade those moments for anything."
-Alex Anderson, 12

"My best high school memory would be playing on Varsity for softball as a freshman. I might not have played every game, but it was really fun. I got to meet a lot of new people."
-Brittney Drummond, 9

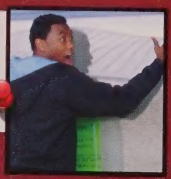
"The worst memory that I will leave high school with....WRITE 'EM!!"
-Joelle Fondo, 12

"A really good memory I had was whenVernon High School had a Literacy Day Festival. In the morning I watched a movie and the rest of the day was spent outside. I had a really good time!"
-Joseph Grippo, 9

"My favorite high school memory was when I was getting some things out of my locker and heard laughter. I went outside and saw my cousin, Jon'Nale fall in the mud IN FRONT OF EVERYBODY! All I could do was laugh. She was covered in mud and had on a white T-Shirt."
-Antwainette Andrews, 10

"Well, I could probably say the best things to happen this year when I got my Shoen Jump book from the library, or meeting my new friends, or getting to finally go to high school"
-Elijah Church, 9

"I remember when Jeremy Howell and I walked half-way from Chipley to Vernon because Eric Sewell dropped us off and left us, but we accidently walked up on the Sophomores homecoming float. That night, we were NINJAS!!"
-Keonte Smith, 11



"The winter formal was off the chain! Just about everybody danced and there were no problems. I remember Keonte Smith dancing with about twenty girls at one time! It was a great dance and a great memory!"
-Tyler Ackerman, 11

"My favorite high school memory was making friends with Chase Anderson. That kid is crazy! He has helped me with so much"
-Adam Liles, 9

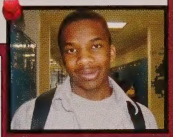
"My favorite memory in VHS is skipping, mainly because it's fun and it's not the right thing to do. Hahaha!"
-Tyler Landry, 10

"Well, my greatest memory is meeting Ne-Ne. She was very shy and also a very pretty girl; she was very sweet. We got to know each other and we're the closest sisters ever! We have our good and bad days. "
-Amber Oliver, 9

"My high school memories mean a lot to me. Every moment I spend with my friends I cherish as a special memory. All the jokes, laughs, times we got in trouble, drama and love we have for each other mean everything to me. I have grown up with these people and they have helped me make my high school memories. My years of high school would have been nothing without them."
-Lauren Register, 11

"My favorite high school memory was when Cedria, Katie and I were in the girls locker room in the gym (hiding away from our new teacher, Coach Boyd) joking around, when we heard someone coming in. We all tried to hide and go run into the bathrooms. While I was trying to hide, I didn't even notice that there was an open locker; I ran straight into it. It ended in me falling to the ground and turning myself into Coach Boyd so that I could get a bag of ice. It wasn't fun walking around all day with a bump on my head. Ugh! Not cute!"
-KeKe Coachman, 12

"High school memories are all filled with good times and drama. You can't talk about school without the drama - all the break-ups and the fighting. It seems like a couple breaks up everyday to go out with their best friend or another friend of theirs. Everyone cries over the same drama and everyone fights over it . All of the good times are having fun with your best friends. I love all my friends even though we argue sometimes."
-Tyrel Judson, 10



"Me, Sabrina and some other friends were walking down the hall when two guys came out of no where and picked me and Sabrina up and stuffed both of us into trash cans."
- Samantha Davis, 10

"Last year after third period, I was walking in the gym, and I sat on the table where they take money at the games. My brother (J.J.) came along and jumped on the table and laid on me. Then, Ladarius came and jumped on him and the table fell and ended up laying on the ground. EVERYONE was laughing!"
-La Conya Stewart, 10

"My favorite high school memory would have to be homecoming '09. We (the cheerleading team) got to show all of our hard work and show the school that we "as a squad" really were very good. We showed them how to have a good time! After the pep rally, we got so many compliments! It was amazing!! "
-Heather Skipper, 12

"My favorite high school memory is unique and unforgettable. I was hungry and Terenicia pulled a bag of goldfish from her purse and handed them to me. To end my brief euphoria, Nathan Williams snatched the unopened bag from my hand! I stepped onto the seat of my desk and, in a legendary reenactment, I 'Spartan-kicked' him in the chest. Some say I yelled, 'This is Goldfish!' "
-Raymond Carter, 12

"I have a whole lot of good memories in high school, but there is one that was my favorite and that was my freshman year-playing varsity football. It was so fun, with one of the funniest coaches ever, Coach Dowling!"
-La' Darius Bell, 10

"High school memories are things you will always remember-your friends, things you did in school, high school pranks, doing stupid things, going to ISS, dating girls and football."
-Donald Joyal, 11

"One of the most embarrassing memories I have is when I ripped my pants. Someone tried to tell me about it , but I didn't believe them. I walked around all day with a hole in my pants.
-Jeremiah Pippin, 12

"On the way to away games (volleyball), all of the JV and Varsity players would sit in the very back of the bus and tell all of the crazy things we've done. Truth or dare and Ten Fingers! We would take a bunch of crazy pictures and laugh until we cried! A lot of memories were made and friendships that will last forever."
-Chelsea (Katie) Hinds, 12

Homecoming Week at VHS was very exciting. Monday was Collegiate Day, Tuesday was Tacky Day, followed by Character Day on Wednesday, everyone dressed up as Nerds on Thursday, and of course Orange and Blue was seen everywhere on Friday .

Our Darling Leanna,

"Wow", where has the time gone? Just yesterday we were watching your first steps, and, now, we are watching you take your final steps into adulthood! Even though our heart hurts to watch you venture into a world of your own, our heart swells with pride because you have made us so very proud of you.

Sweetheart, you will never know just how special you are. You continue to amaze us with your talents, independence, and, mostly, your individuality. Always remember that with God all things are possible. Keep your head high and be proud of who you are.

Thank you, my darling, for blessing our lives with such happiness and joy.

We love you always,
Mama, Daddy, Frankie, Dolly
and your very special angel

Elise,
We are so proud of you and your accomplishments! We have enjoyed every minute of watching you grow into a beautiful young woman. Congratulations and good luck in your future, we know you can do anything you put your mind and heart into.

We love you so much,
Mom, Dad, and Dylan

Vernon High School Principal

2008 - 2010

With a special gift for learning
And with a heart that deeply cares,
You add a lot of love
To everything you share,
And even though
You mean a lot,
You'll never know how much,
For you helped
To change the world
Through every life you touched.
You sparked the creativity
In the people whom you taught,
And helped them strive for goals
That could not be bought,
You are such a special principal
That no words can truly tell
However much you're valued
For the work you do so well.

We will miss you!

Brown's Funeral Home

Don & Nina Brown founded Brown Funeral Home in 1966 with the goal of serving families in the Washington County and surrounding areas. Later, they purchased the former Wachob Forest Lawn Funeral Home and Cemetary and renamed it Brown Funeral Home, Brickyard Road Chapel.

Today, they continue to serve families with the same compassion and understanding they have become known for.

Being locally owned and operated, they believe they have the community knowledge to serve any family in their time of need.
